Ok I'm going to give this some more thought.

Phil if I could manage to land in anchorage on sunday evening would we be able to drive out to ft knox, tour the mine and be back to anchorage by tues night. How cheap can we make this?

Phil:

The Sussman/Stoner trip kicks off from Anchorage to Iliamna on June 1 with a 7:30 flight. So I have to be back in Anchorage the night of 5/31.

If I can get up there early what is the min amount of time we would need to do the Ft Knox trip?

Also its Memorial Day weekend so would we even be able to tour on Monday 5/30 or Tues 5/31?

Hi Palmer,

Non-Responsive

I have no limitations if you go before your trip to Bristol Bay. That might be a good idea so you have a visual before you see the Pebble site. However, I will be flying out of Anchorage for SC in the wee hours of June 5. I need to be home at least the day before to get ready for that trip.
